Implied Consent Bill Approved, Sent To Romney

LANSING (AP)—The Senate Friday approved a controversial implied consent bill aimed at curbing drunken driving. A conference committee version of the bill passed 28-9 and was sent to Gov. George Romney for signing.

The House earlier approved the conference committee report.

The bill provides that a person who obtains a driver's license implies at that time he will submit to chemical tests in cases of suspected drunken driving.

License At Stake
If the driver refuses tests of blood, urine, saliva and breath, he risks possible loss of his license.

Backers of the bill said it would help cut the number of drinking drivers in the state.

The conference committee report amended one provision of the House bill so that refusal of a driver to submit to such tests, now is not admissible in court as evidence.

Refusal, however, still could result in suspension of a driver's license.

The bill provides that the arresting officer submit a sworn report to the office of the secretary of state, with the office to notify the driver of the report.

The driver may request a hearing on the complaint within 14 days after the date of the notice.

Exceptions Listed
If no hearing is requested, the secretary of state shall suspend or revoke the person's license for a period of not less than 90 days nor more than two years.

The bill further provides that at the time of arrest, the police officer must advise the driver of his right to refuse the tests.

It also provides that a driver suffering from hemophilia, diabetes or any disease for which he takes anticoagulants does not, at the time he acquires a license, imply consent of a blood test.

Trade Commission Urges Stronger Cigarette Warning

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal agency says warnings of health hazards required on cigarette packages are too roundabout, not firm enough, and don't pack a full enough punch.

The Federal Trade Commission recommended Friday that warnings on cigarette packs be changed to read: "Warning: Cigarette smoking is dangerous to health and may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

Federal Deficit To Get Larger

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government began a new fiscal year today with the prospect of compiling the largest "peace-time" budget deficit in the nation's history.

Estimates of the administrative budget red ink for the new fiscal year now range from an official $13.6 billion from Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler to more than $20 billion.

Fiscal 1967 ended at midnight Friday with a budget deficit of about $11 billion, a federal debt of about $327 billion and a new law raising the permanent debt ceiling to $358 billion effective today.

Vietnam war spending is mainly responsible for the heavy deficit of the past 12 months. Estimates the next fiscal deficit could top the $20 billion level are based on possible escalation of troop strength in Vietnam.

Exact figures on tax receipts, spending and the deficit for the year just ended won't be available for another three weeks. But the best estimates of the Budget Bureau and the Treasury Department provide these statistics:

— Spending: About $127.5 billion, roughly $800 million lower than January's estimates.

— Deficit: About $11 billion, $1.3 billion higher than projected last January.

Six Satellites Shot Into Orbit

CAPE Kennedy, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force today orbited a bundle of six satellites and drilled its third stage and the attached satellites into an initial orbit about 100 miles above the earth.

The bundle included a satellite that could lead to a tactical communications satellite system for use by combat soldiers and another designed to transmit color photographs of the earth.

Under a law passed in 1965, the packages now carry these words:

"Caution: Cigarette smoking may be hazardous to your health."

In urging Congress to modify the wording, the commission said there was no evidence the warning required under the 1965 law has had any significant effect in cutting public use of tobacco.

In fact, noted the commission, recent estimates indicate cigarette sales in the past year will set a record high.

The commission also urged legislation to require that the tar and nicotine content of each brand of cigarettes be listed on packages and in all advertising.

And it called disturbing an industry trend toward manufacture of longer cigarettes, which it said "expose the smoker to greater amounts of tar and nicotine, making them potentially more hazardous than the shorter length cigarettes."

TV Equal Time
Commissioner Philip Elman, in a separate concurring statement, urged banning of the extra-long cigarettes and of all cigarette advertising on radio and television.

Rites Planned For Film Star

PENARGYL, Pa. (AP)—Jayne Mansfield, the glamorous movie star who became world-renowned as a sex symbol, will be buried Monday in this small eastern Pennsylvania town, where she lived as a little girl, it was disclosed today.

A spokesman for the Pullis Funeral Home here said Miss Mansfield's body was flown today from New Orleans, La., where she was killed in an auto crash Thursday to Newark, N.J. Attendees brought it by hearse the remaining 65 miles.

Undertaker Clyde A. Pullis said services will be "strictly private" at 2 p.m. EDT with burial in Fairview Cemetery, near the grave of her father, Edward Palmer, who was a lawyer in nearby Phillipsburg, N.J.

Her grandparents and her great-grandparents, on her father's side, also are buried at Fairview.

Pen Argyl is 71 miles north of Philadelphia.

Fiscal Package Elates Romney

LANSING (AP)—Faced with the choice of new taxes or a major spending slash, the Legislature gave final approval today to a $239-million revenue package containing the first state income tax in Michigan history.

Approved by both House and Senate in identical form was a bill levying a tax of 2.6 per cent on the incomes of individual Michigan residents, but allowing each taxpayer an exemption of $1,200 per dependent.

Designed also to be referendum-proof, it also taxes corporate income at 5.6 per cent and that of financial institutions at 7 per cent.

It repeals the business activity tax and gives relief from property, intangibles and city income tax.

Senate refusal to give the measure immediate effect threatened to cost the state an estimated $20 million and to bring the regular 1967 legislative session to a sudden and chaotic halt.

Gov. George Romney, who last week summoned Republican and Democratic House leaders to the negotiating sessions which hatched the program, was angered by the Senate's refusal to vote immediate effect.

But Romney, who paced in his office through the night awaiting the outcome of the dramatic early-morning tax session, also was elated at the "historic accomplishment."

"Michigan's future is brighter and its tax structure much fairer to low-income families and low-income businesses," the governor told a dawn press conference. "We also have the financial resources to carry on essential public services."

Romney had warned legislators of an 18 per cent cut in his proposed $1.133 billion budget unless they voted to produce new revenue.

His threatened "austerity budget" level was around $945.9 million—lower even than the $1,064 billion spending level of the past fiscal year.

Although the budget bills for the year which begins today still have not been passed, Senate Republican leaders threatened to bring the session to an end Monday if senators again refused to give the tax bill immediate effect.

Time Important
That requires a two-thirds vote, but without it the key personal income tax section could not take effect on schedule next Oct. 1.

If the Legislature adjourned July 20 as planned, the bill would not otherwise take effect until late in October, and the state would lose month's revenue, or about $20 million.

Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, said he would try again today for immediate effect before introducing the adjournment resolution. The Senate tried twice early today, but fell two votes short each time.

If the Legislature adjourned, Romney would have to call it back in a special session to deal with the state's unfinished business.

Here are the key provisions of the tax package and the planned effective date of each: —2.6 per cent personal income tax with $1,200 deduction per dependent, Oct. 1, 1967.

—Income taxes of 5.6 per cent on corporations and 7 per cent on financial institutions, Jan. 1, 1968.

—Repeal of the business activities tax, Jan. 1, 1968.

—Increase in the per-person exemption from the intangibles tax from $10 to $100, Oct. 1.

—Distribution of $38 million per year to local units of government on a per-capita basis.

Cigarette Tax Unchanged
A bill regarded as part of the legislative fiscal program, which would boost the cigarette tax by three cents a pack and take effect Aug. 1, has passed the House but not the Senate.

The income tax bill—which passed the Senate 22-15 early today after being approved 62-44 by the House in a similar post-midnight session Thursday—was written during the heated negotiations in Romney's office.

An early-morning huddle of legislative leaders today erased the difference remaining between the House and Senate, and moulded the tax package into its final form. Then it breezed through both houses with substantial bipartisan support.

The most important part of the morning compromise was a decision to try to prevent a popular vote on the bill.

The State Constitution permits referendums on all bills passed by the Legislature except those appropriating money or designed "to meet deficiencies in state funds."

Left in the final version of the bill was a $3 million appropriation to the State Budget Bureau and the assertion that the measure was passed to meet a deficiency.

State To Vote On Local Tax

LANSING (AP)—Michigan voters will decide in November, 1968, whether to enable state and local governments to impose graduated income taxes.

The House Friday approved $1.19 a Senate-passed resolution which will put the issue on the ballot.

The chamber also approved tighter restrictions on application of Workmen's Compensation to farm workers, delayed a legislative showdown over Sunday liquor until later this year, and voted to raise the resident deer license fee from $5 to $6.

Passage of the graduated-tax resolution with the needed two-thirds majority was one of the conditions House Democrats threatened before agreeing last Wednesday to a compromise tax package.

The Michigan Constitution now provides that "no income tax graduated as to rate or base shall be imposed by the state or any of its subdivisions."

Voters will be asked to reverse that wording to specify that the state or a local unit may be permitted to levy an income tax either flat-rate or graduated.

By a technical move which looked like—but wasn't—a defeat for Sunday liquor, the House sent the question back to the Senate and to a probable conference committee.

Johnson Signs New Draft Law

SAN ANTONIO, TEX. (AP)—President Johnson signed into law Friday a four-year extension of the military draft and changed student deferment rules.

Through an executive order, the president revised the basis for undergraduate deferments, restricted deferments for graduate students and sharply limited the "pyramiding" of deferments—getting on after another until in the end, military service is avoided.

The order also includes stand-by authority for the induction of 19 year olds first, but this will not be used immediately.

The old draft law had permitted drafting of 19 year olds, but in practice older men had been taken first.

The Senate and House, in reports of committees, had approved the shift to the earlier age group.

The complex executive order scraps the old system of basing undergraduate deferments on test scores and class standing. The new rules will grant deferments to those who satisfactorily pursue full time studies. These deferments will continue until the young man gets his bachelor's degree, drops out of school or reaches the age of 24—which ever comes first.

Jets Hit Oil At Haiphong

SAIGON (AP)—Carrier-based U.S. Navy bombers left fuel dumps some distance inland, however. The closest to Haiphong was a strike on the Lei Dong storage area five miles to the northwest. Another fuel dump seven miles south-west of the port city was also attacked.

Returning pilots said 500-pound bombs sent ribbons of flame through the fuel dumps and the column of smoke from burning oil could be seen for miles.

The raids were part of 113 strike missions Friday. Again the much-battered rail lines running from Hanoi to the Red Chinese frontier came in for heavy U.S. bombing.

Some 60 miles up the Red River rail line to the northwest of Haiphong, Air Force Thunderchief pilots raked a position prepared for Soviet-built surface-to-air missiles. The area was left in flames pilots said.

War Veteran, 16 Returns To School

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—Leonard Smith Jr. was only 16 years old when he won a Purple Heart last year as an Army paratrooper in Vietnam.

The Army discovered his age and he is back in high school in Charlotte now.

He seems proud of what he has done. Even more, he seems amused by it.

At the age of 15 he dropped out of the 10th grade, caught a bus to Columbia, S.C., and appeared at Ft. Jackson to enlist.

The captain asked me if I had a birth certificate, and I said, "No, it's at home." I told him I was 18." Leonard said.

"I guess they didn't want to send me back to Charlotte to get it, and that's the last I heard about it until after I was wounded."

He was 5 feet, 6 inches tall and weighed 135 pounds. He since has added 20 pounds.

Twenty weeks later, in February 1966, he was on his way to Vietnam—a paratrooper in the 101st Airborne Division.

On Aug. 26, 1966, 17 days after his 16th birthday, his six-man reconnaissance team was ambushed. Shrapnel from an enemy mortar struck him on the right leg.

During his two-week hospital stay, "they started checking my records. They found out how old I was and that did it."

Back in high school now he talks to fellow students "about what we're fighting for."

"I tell them about stopping Communism. Somebody's got to live over there. Everybody can't live because sometimes you've got to fight and die for people," Leonard says.

He wants to finish high school and go to college.

High Water, Dead Fish Threaten Beach Safety

Dr. Mary L. Cretens, director of the Delta Menominee Health Department, awaited a report from the State Health Department laboratory at Pinecrest Medicare Facility, Powers, with concern late Friday in fear that it might require the closing of Escanaba's Ludington Park beach to public swimming.

The report, however, showed that the water there was at a safe health level, and was, in fact, much improved over conditions found earlier in the season.

Two factors have contribed to high levels of bacterial and fungal contamination of the water in Little Bay de Noc at the local beach, said Dr. Cretens:

1. The unusual amount of rain and resulting high water levels, with rivers flushing out contamination into bay waters.
2. The die-off of the trash fish, alewife, by the millions in Lake Michigan waters, causing pollution.

"These fish carry a colon bacteria and when they die it brings up the coliform count in the water and causes diarrhea, even in adults," explained Dr. Cretens.

She said that the Health Department's check of youngsters had revealed a higher than usual number of cases of ear infections in early swimmers locally. Normally the water is less pure in the early swimming period but this year the problem has been increased by an even higher microbe count than in the past.

The Escanaba beach is under cleanup procedures to reduce the dead fish hazard.

Dr. Cretens said that the following beach areas in Delta and Menominee counties had been tested and found to be safe for swimming:

- Escanaba Municipal Beach.
- Gladstone Municipal Beach.
- Ford River at Hyde.
- Nahma Beach.
- Powers Stone Quarry.
- Veterans Park, Powers.
- Hermansville Lake Beach.

The Health Department makes weekly checks, or more frequently where needed, and will report any dangers encountered in the Press.

Webster Pool Closed Monday

The wading pool at the Webster playground will be closed on Monday and Tuesday and the buses to the swimming beach will not run, according to an announcement by the recreation department. The regular schedule of activities will be resumed Wednesday, July 5.

Activities at Royce Park will be conducted according to the following schedule with the exception of Tuesday, July 4:

- Boys and girls 5 to 7, arts and crafts from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.
- Boys and girls 8 to 12, arts and crafts from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.
- Girls 10 and older, volleyball at 9 a.m., softball games at 10 a.m. and 11 a.m., and badminton at 1:30 p.m.

Cloverland Paper Co. operates throughout the Upper Peninsula, primarily serving the printing trade. In addition the firm distributes other items including towels, tissue, wrapping, cups, tape and napkins.

The company was founded at its present location in 1930 by the late Leonard Stade. Harold Lindsay purchased the business in 1942 and operated it until his death in 1952. Mrs. Lindsay has operated the company since, assisted by several managers including her daughter, Joanne, now of Chicago. Edward Hendrickson and Charles Johnson.

Through the years the Cloverland Paper Co. has represented some of the larger paper mills, including Kimberly-Clark, Mead, Scott, Minnesota Mining and Whiting.

Sundstrom, a resident of Escanaba since 1946, was formerly employed in newspaper and advertising work. He and his wife, Ruth, and two children, Lynn and Mike, reside at 210 S. Fifth St. A daughter, Mrs. George (Sandy) Papich, lives in Marquette.

Hospital War Begins Again

IRON RIVER — The Iron County Hospital controversy exploded again this week with a letter from a state health department official affirming that federal Hill-Burton matching funds for hospital construction have already been committed to Crystal Falls.

Voters of Iron County, in an election sharply split between the Iron River and Crystal Falls area, approved a $1.6 bond issue for an acute care hospital to be located in Iron River.

Joseph Homminga, director of the hospital and medical facilities division of the health department, Lansing, said in a letter that "there is no commitment and never has been a commitment of a grant of federal funds under the Hill-Burton program to pay part of the costs of construction of the proposed county general hospital."

Instead, Homminga wrote, funds have been committed "for a new hospital to be constructed by the city (Crystal Falls) west of Crystal Falls. A grant will be made for construction of only one hospital in the Iron County environs. As far as we can determine, the city of Crystal Falls and the Crystal Falls Municipal Hospital Board of Trustees can meet the requirement. . . for a grant and can proceed."

The Iron County Hospital Board of Trustees made immediate plans for an appeal on the ruling.

State Leads Dip In Milk Production

Michigan was one of the three states with the highest decline in milk production during the month of May, according to the early July market report from Dr. John Ferris.

An Extension economist at Michigan State University, Ferris noted May production declines were most pronounced in Michigan, New York and New Jersey, while output increased in Wisconsin, Minnesota, California and most southern states. Total milk output in Michigan was down 7 per cent in May. This pattern in production trends has continued since late in 1966. Even so, milk production per cow in May was up 4 per cent from the year before.

Mead Plans Growth

Announcement on Friday that Cornell Township had agreed to sponsor industrial revenue bonds to finance expansion of the Escanaba Division plant of Mead Corp. was news of high hopes.

Mead said it had not made a final decision on the expansion project which might come to Escanaba and that several other sites were also under consideration. But with planning at the point of injury on financing the project seems at least a likely prospect here.

Our community is witnessing large corporate venture at work in this project. Like so much of modern industrial growth it proposes to tie the community and one of its largest industries into a closer partnership, with a local government offering the aid of its federal tax free bonding privilege to Mead to make its securities offering to finance the plant expansion more attractive to investors.

The bonding would not affect the property tax-paying status of the mill and it wouldn't be any kind of obligation upon Cornell Township, either. Cornell became sponsor because Mead's employment is so large and inclusive in this area that the nearer local governments all have possible conflict of interest problems because they have Mead employees on their governing boards.

Cornell Township, said Supervisor Grey Knaus, was glad to cooperate in the industrial growth project by sponsoring industrial bonds under a new Michigan law, because Mead is one of its largest taxpayers (Boney Falls hydro-electric generating plant, transmission line, flowage lands) and employers and it stands to benefit directly from any expansion.

The Michigan Industrial Revenue Bonding Act was created for purposes like the Mead case — the promotion of industrial growth. Michigan decided some years ago that if it was going to fight the drain of industries to the South with its industrial growth inducements and subsidies, that it must have some offerings to induce industrial growth in Michigan. The bonding act resulted.

It was put to first use when Gaylord induced the U. S. Plywood Corp. to locate a new plant there. The act was tested in a friendly Supreme Court action and held constitutional.

If Mead decides to enlarge its Groos plant on the Escanaba River here the project would bring the greatest industrial investment in the history of the community. A third paper machine in the mill would mean 200 more jobs. A pulp mill would enlarge and diversify the pulping process. The mill now produces 85,000 tons of paper yearly. The planned expansion would add 130,000 tons, much more than doubling capacity and greatly enlarging the market for wood from Mead's expanded woodlands and those of hundreds of other suppliers.

Mead is Delta County's largest taxpayer and second largest employer. It is one of the largest owners of Upper Peninsula industrial forest lands with 374,000 acres of forest lands owned or leased.

Its recent purchase of a huge acreage of Celotex Corp. forest lands in the U. P. attested its confidence in the future of wood industry in this area and its present planning for increased manufacturing further demonstrates its interest. They are indications of growth and greater stability ahead for our wood industries, which have not had the growth which the paper industry has had in the South and the Pacific Northwest.

Mead says there's Upper Peninsula wood available for an operation of the size of its projected 215,000 ton mill. Its plans indicate that it has found a good labor source here. Community factors will figure in Mead's judgment and it is a reminder of the fact that a good community, with adequate educational, health and civic services is the very best kind of recommendation in the quest for industry.

Mead is a very good neighbor and the Delta area hopes strongly that when it decides on the site for increased production of its light weight publishing papers it will be at its Groos mill. The expansion would greatly stimulate the Escanaba area's confidence in its future and provide more resources for community growth.

Finding The Way

Life Should Be Purposeful

By RALPH W. LOEW, D. D.

Six or seven girls were seated at a wooden table, each of them working at a delicate design. With tweezers, they would pick the tiniest bits of colored glass from various boxes and arrange them in patterns of their own contriving.

This was happening in a little glass factory in Strathearn, Scotland, and the girls were fashioning paperweights. We had been driving down the lovely road and had seen the gracious sign, "Come in and visit us." So we stopped and watched the making of the glass. Now I have a paperweight on my desk, beautiful with its rosettes of pink, orange and blue which burst as though it were a fragment from a Fourth of July rocket or, perhaps, a pressed flower.

About Goodness The memory of these girls at work suggests what so many of us have tried to do with righteousness. We've taken what we interpret as goodness or, for that matter, godliness, and pieced together the naive fragments of the years. Deliberately, we fashion them into patterns and then "freeze" them under glass. They're beautiful in a nostalgic way. Yet this makes religion a museum piece and goodness only a contrived and rigid pattern.

The fascinating thing about so much important action is that it broke into life as a flower unfolding instead of a preconceived pattern. Teilhard de Chardin insists that we must understand the instinct toward research and new life or "we find the whole structure of politics economic-social relations reduced to an arbitrary system of conventional and temporary expedients. Everything in the human world becomes artificial in the worst sense of the word: everything is divested of importance, urgency and interest. Christianity itself becomes more than a sort of alien proliferation, without analogy or roots in the Phenomenon of Man." Life is orderly growth, therefore not meant to be pressed into an artificial pattern.

Reds' Arms Potential

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA)— This reporter recently has had access to a large number of abstracts of advanced Communist Chinese technical research conducted over the past few years in the top Chinese mainland laboratories.

The work is first-rate. It covers a range of highly advanced research on radar, electronic, nuclear, laser, micro-electronic and computer theory and technology.

The Red Chinese advances cover a much broader front than required for hydrogen bomb development and production.

They range over the fields necessary for missile production, guidance and detection and push into fields that could lead to other advanced types of weaponry.

Over the past years this reporter has been able to see a large volume of Soviet research reports in abstract form. This too was first-rate.

There was evidence of some exchange of scientific research information between the Soviet Union and Communist China since the formal break between the two countries. Whether this exchange was official or bootlegged was not clear.

Yet the United States has consistently underestimated the ability of Russia and Red China to produce strategic weaponry.

This reporter was in a session years ago at the Department of State in which the then secretary of state was explaining in detail why the Russians could not have a nuclear weapon for years.

The secretary explained that the engineering problems were exceedingly difficult, even after the scientific problems were solved. These engineering techniques and the industrial abilities to produce the equipment to the tolerances required, he said, could not be acquired quickly. The Soviet Union was short of such engineers and such industrial experience, said the secretary; therefore, it would be quite some time before Moscow would have the bomb.

A short time later the Russians exploded their first nuclear weapon.

The U.S. government debated for some time whether to build an H-bomb at all. The theory was that it was a horrible weapon and that the Russians could not build one for a long time.

Again, the Russians came along with their H-bomb ahead of our predicted schedule.

Now the Pentagon again is downgrading what the Russians and the Red Chinese will be able to do.

They discount the ability of Peking to turn out a reliable long range missile force for a number of years. The figures vary—but the estimates are all safely in the future.

They downgrade the ability of Moscow to build a first-rate missile defense system in the years just ahead.

These men may be right. But there's an optimism at the Defense Department that borders on overconfidence. Our information on what the Russians and the Chinese are doing does not bear out. Our past underestimating of their abilities does not lead to confidence in Defense Department statements.

Rather, the evidence seems to suggest that the Department of Defense should sharply step up its program of basic and state of the art research.

Wheeler Witte On Bridge Body

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney has announced appointments to the State Liquor Control Commission, the State Employee's Retirement Board, the Special Commission on Urban Problems and the Mackinac Bridge Authority.

The governor reappointed Vincent O'Neill of Grand Rapids to the Liquor Control Commission. O'Neill, a member of the commission since 1957, also has been an investigator for the state attorney general's office.

A Wyoming man, Wheeler Witte, was named to a six-year term on the Mackinac Bridge Authority. Witte, a native of the Upper Peninsula, is business representative for Laborers' Local 1191 and secretary-treasurer of the Grand Rapids Building Trades Credit Union.

Senate confirmation is required.

Witte lived in Escanaba several years when he was business agent for the Laborers Union in this area.

Safety At Bridge Raises Score

"How could you have been so stupid?" asked West.

"There was no way on my line of attack," replied the professor. "I could lose one trump, one diamond and two hearts if East could gain the lead. Hence, I made sure that East could not get in. I ducked the first diamond as the start of that campaign. Then when I took the spade finesse I was in the position of the man who has bet every horse in the race. I could not lose. If East had held the queen of spades I would have picked it up and made a small slam. Since West held the queen he won that trick and was smart enough to take his ace of hearts also but the rubber was safe."

"Sounds good," said West. "But I still think you threw away three tricks."

"Right," said the professor, "and I'll give up many another trick for safety when I have a safe play at my disposal."

Physical Education Isn't Dictatorship

Dear Ann Landers: I am a mother who is burned up about something and I would like you to print my letter and your answer before school starts next fall.

We send our sons to school to become educated — not to learn how to climb ropes, he wrestlers or build muscles so they can pose for male magazines. Also, we do not send our girls to school to take showers in front of 50 other girls.

So why is physical education compulsory in our public school system which is supported by taxpayers? A student cannot get his high school diploma unless he has had four years of gym. I call this a dictatorship, not a land of freedom. If some parents want their kids to train to be monkeys that's their business, but why must this sort of nonsense be forced on everyone? — A READER

Dear Reader: If you knew the physical condition of most of the teen-agers in this country you'd be shocked. Lady, a country whose living standard is the highest in the world should hide its head in shame when over 40 per cent of its young men are rejected for military service because they cannot meet the physical requirements.

If high school gym were not mandatory, some of our kids would get virtually NO exercise. One of the curses of our push-button affluent society is that people ride instead of walk and everything is motorized and mechanized. This is one reason so many young executives drop dead from heart attacks.

Dear Ann Landers: My problem is a brother and a sister-in-law. They lost a child in an accident three years ago. The whole family has bent over backwards to be kind to them.

We have invited this couple to our home for dinner every other Sunday since the tragedy and they have accepted every invitation. Yet they have not asked us to have a meal in their home even once.

My husband says he is fed up on this one-sided relationship and we should not invite them again until they invite us to their place. What do you say? — D.O.D.

Dear D.: According to my figures, your brother and his wife have had approximately 75 Sunday dinners in your home. This is a lot of chicken.

Leading up to the grand finale will be the presentation of the three talent and three swimsuit winners, a film of the first cherry festival, presentation of the seven finalists, and a farewell by Miss Nolan, the 1966 queen.

When the 1967 national cherry queen is crowned it will be with the "Rajah's Lost Crown" made available for such an event for the first time by the Meyer Jewelry Co. of Detroit. A scholarship, a watch, and a wardrobe valued at over $400 will accrue to the winning miss.

John Anderson, general manager of WCCW, Traverse City, will emcee tonight. Judging for both the talent and swimsuit competition as well as for the finals will be Laurena Pringle, fashion and society editor of the Detroit Free Press, Stan Dale, WLS Radio in Chicago, and Chief Leslie Wright of the U.S. Naval Mobile Construction Battalion Center in Davisville, R.I.

Hints from Heloise

Dear Heloise:
Is one refrigerator shelf colder than another?

After all, it is important that we know since the majority of our perishable foods are kept in our refrigerators.

Eleanor Tiller

Dear Eleanor:

I don't know what brand of refrigerator you have but from my own experience and testing, the top shelf is the coldest, the top shelf is the next coldest and on down, according to how many shelves you have! So, hon, what you want real cold put on your top shelf!

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

If you like to sit on a porch or an outside patio and have trouble keeping your cigarette ashes in the ash trays try using a glass with a bit of water as an ash tray.

The ashes settle to the bottom and there is no muss.

I know one lady who purchased several small inexpensive brandy snifters for just such use.

Colored water could be added for a decorative effect as well as a conversational piece.

Ever tried damp sand? It's great. It can also be colored with food coloring.

Empty flip top drink cans are good too. If they get knocked over, no mess.

Independence Day

"...That all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness"

On July 4, 1776, at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, American freedom was born, with the adoption of the Declaration of Independence. For the 56 patriotic men who signed this document, their act was both an affirmation of belief and an expression of great courage. In Signing, they truly pledged "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor." To the vision and determination of these men and others like them, we owe our progress and achievements as a nation, and our American way of life.

As we observe Independence Day, we may fittingly celebrate with festivity, for it is indeed a day to be happy. But along with the picnics, the trips and all the carefree pleasures of the Fourth of July, let us remember that, above all, this is a day to commemorate with prayer and thanksgiving, for our God-given rights and for our forefathers' steadfastness in upholding those rights. Let us affirm our faith in the principles and process of personal liberty, and let us pledge to be ever resolute in the cause of freedom.

Champion Loses At Charlevoix; Smith Is Beaten

CHARLEVOIX (AP)—The defending champion and the medalist stood on the sidelines today as the Michigan Amateur Golf Tournament went into the third round of match play.

Don Stevens of Birmingham eliminated defending champion Bob Meyer of East Lansing 1-up in 20 holes in the second round Friday. In Friday's first round, Stevens took 21 holes to beat Leo Miller of Jackson, 1-up.

Jim McGaffin of Royal Oak tripped medalist Frank Skelton of Grand Rapids 2 and 1 in the first round. Jim St. Germain of Northville knocked out McGaffin 4 and 2 in the second round.

Tad Schmidt of Drayton Plains, who fired a record 65 in the first round of qualifying Wednesday over par 36-36-72 Belvedere Golf Course, stumbled past Otto Schubel of Lansing 1-up in the first round, but he lost in the second. Jim Funston of Bloomfield Hills crushed Schmidt 6 and 5.

Bill Smith of Sault Ste. Marie, who is fighting both the hilly, wind-swept course and a case of encephalitis, lost to Lee Edmundson of Lundington 1-up in 11 holes of the first round.

Stevens, who won the tournament in 1960, met Don Mead of Detroit today. Five-time winner Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile played Livonia's Bud Stevens, Don's brother, who has won three times.

St. Germain met Mike Smith of Flint and Johnson tried Bill Newcomb of Ann Arbor. "I got a little sand," Meyer said softly at his loss on the 20th hole. "I hit a trap, chipped out and missed my putt."

Don Stevens, sporting a sunburned nose, said, "I hit four on the 20th. He gave me a 212 foot putt. On 18, I sank an eight-footer and won the hole when he missed a seven-footer. That tied us."

The Escanaba Teamsters came through in an opening round game of the Invitational softball tournament at Memorial Field Friday night but the league leading Merchants were jolted to the sidelines.

The Teamsters eliminated Wisconsin National Life Insurance of Negaunee in a 2-1 marathon that stretched through 12 innings.

Winner over the Merchants, 3-0, was the Nasser's-Al & Sal's team of Iron River.

Action in the Fourth of July tournament continues today with six games on tap, including the 9 p. m. nightcap which sends Flat Rock against the winner of an earlier tilt between Marquette Ging's and Gwinn Peterson's.

Bill Groleau went the distance on the Teamster mound and limited Negaunee to four hits. The visitors were unable to get more than one hit in any single frame.

Teamsters reached veteran Jack Stone for 10 safeties but he was tough in the clutches.

Negaunee scored first in the game, Bill Jennings drawing a walk and scoring on a single by Bianchi in the second inning. The Teamsters tied it in the third when Ed Gauthier lashed a triple to score Frank Trotter who had walked.

That's the way it stood until the 12th when Trotter stroked a triple and slid home on Gauthier's ground ball to short.

Trotter and Tom McKie, playing left field, turned in outstanding defensive performances for the Teamsters.

Ronnie Holmes threw shut-out ball at the Merchants as the Iron River team turned in the first upset of the tournament. Holmes scattered five hits and struck out three batters.

Iron River scored all its runs in the second inning with three straight singles off Bob Corrieau doing the damage. Corrieau allowed only two other hits in the game.

Tiger Tales

DETROIT (AP)—The 31,827 fans who turned out for the first game of the White Sox series booed Manager Smith when he lifted Johnny Podres in favor of relief pitcher Mike Marshall in the Chicago eighth.

"Anybody who pitched as gutty a game as Podres did has got to wonder what the hell I'm taking him out for," said Smith.

"But what they don't understand is that Johnny had a bad cold all week and he was tired from the fifth inning on."

The fans gave Podres a standing ovation as he left the field, probably the loudest cheering for any Tiger this year.

"It makes you feel great when the home fans are behind you," said Podres. "But they can get on you pretty good in this town when things aren't going right. They've been rough on Al Kaline a couple of times this year and he's played some great baseball in this town."

"I've seen Willie Mays in terrible batting slumps in San Francisco and the fans would stand up and cheer everytime he came to bat."

Smith said part of the reason for the Detroit fans' attitude is "that they've been frustrated for so many years. They want a pennant."

Detroit left fielder Jim Landis, considered a good base runner, was picked off first base by Chicago's Tommy John in the fourth inning. Jim Northrup was caught stealing on a similar play in the eighth.

"Landis just got caught leaping the wrong way," said Smith. "Northrup got a slow jump going to second."

Tonight's game with Chicago is the only scheduled Saturday night game this season. The Tigers were expecting upwards of 40,000 fans.

Mantle Added To Star Squad

BOSTON (AP)—The American League All-Star team will look more familiar this year with the Mick back in uniform for the 38th classic with the National League July 11 at Anaheim.

Forced to pass up the All-Star Game because of injuries the last two years, Mickey Mantle has been picked to make another appearance with the league's top stars.

The New York Yankees' aging but still dangerous slugger topped a group of nine additional players named to the squad Friday to back up eight starters chosen in balloting by players, managers and coaches.

Joining Mantle on the squad were first baseman Don Mincher and shortstop Jim Fregosi of the California Angels; second baseman Dick McAuliffe of the Detroit Tigers; third baseman Max Alvis of the Cleveland Indians; catchers Paul Casanova of the Washington Senators and Andy Etchebarren of the Baltimore Orioles; and outfielders Tommie Agee of the Chicago White Sox and Tony Conigliaro of the Boston Red Sox.

The additions, announced by league president Joe Cronin, were selected by Hank Bauer, manager of Baltimore's world champions who will direct the All-Star squad.

Lou Schissler of Denver rolled the first 300 game in the ABC team event in the 1967 American Bowling Congress tournament.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

Montreal Green So Rugged Pros Have To Laugh

MONTREAL (AP)—The 17th green is a horror. It's so bad, they're laughing about it. These premier pros of the world gathered for the $20,000 Canadian Open Golf Championship.

"What else can you do?" Arnold Palmer said, grinning and chucking.

"I have never seen anything like it, in all the years I've been playing golf. I can't even say it's not too bad. It's just damn ridiculous. Now go print that."

It was all said with a joke and a smile—the reaction most of the players had, except deadly serious Art Wall, the greying veteran who had a two-stroke lead going into today's third round.

"Well, it was playable Friday," Wall said after posting a 70 for 137. "It wasn't playable Thursday."

"But how can I complain? I'm leading. But really, it's pretty difficult."

Wall had three birdies, on putts of 40, 15 and 5 feet, and two bogeys, both times when he was in a trap.

Tigers Trim Chisox Lead To 4 1/2 Games

DETROIT (AP)—The patchwork Detroit Tigers, playing with their backs to the wall, knocked off the league-leading Chicago White Sox 4-1 Friday night with the aging arm of Johnny Podres and the new wing of Mike Marshall.

"We got the first one," said Manager Mayo Smith. "But we've got to sweep the three-game series in order to make 3 any headway."

The victory moved second place Detroit to within 4 1/2 games of the White Sox. Dave Wickersham, making his first start of the season, was to go against right-hander Joel Horlen tonight.

Wickersham was pulled from the bullpen to replace Earl Wilson, injured in the Cleveland series.

Podres, not fully recovered from a severe chest cold which hit him earlier this week, held the Sox scoreless for seven innings before being lifted in the eighth after giving up two straight hits.

"Mayo told me to throw as hard as you can for as long as you can," said Podres, who said he used finesse more than power in lasting as long as he did.

Podres gave up eight hits in 7 1/3 innings. He put the leadoff man on base three times in the first six innings without allowing a run. But he didn't walk a man.

"That's the big thing about pitching control," said Podres. "It takes three singles to score a run. But the walks will kill you."

Podres got into trouble in the eighth when Don Buford and Dick Kenworthy hit back-to-back singles with one out.

Marshall took over and gave up a run-scoring single to Tommy Agee before retiring the side.

Marshall, who holds a masters degree from Michigan State, declined to disclose his trade secrets which have turned him into the most reliable man in the Detroit bullpen since coming up from Toledo earlier this month.

"I'll try anything to get them out," he said. "I'll stand on my head and pitch if I have to."

Smith said he was pleased with the work of both pitchers. "Podres was tired from the fifth inning on," he said, "but he turned in a gutsy performance. Don't forget he couldn't even dress last Tuesday because of the chest cold."

"That Marshall is a cool customer," Smith added. "He doesn't scare out there."

The Tigers, playing with regular outfielders Al Kaline and Willie Horton sidelined by injuries, and No. 1 reserve Gates Brown out with a dislocated wrist bone, jumped to a 3-0 lead in the first inning.

With one out, Dick McAuliffe tripled off Sox center fielder Agee's glove.

Agee said "it was hit harder than I thought and got away from me."

Chicago starter Tommy John walked the next two men, with McAuliffe scoring on a passed ball in between.

Norm Cash, playing despite a swollen gland in his neck, drove in two runs with a long double to left field, staking Podres to a 3-0 lead.

Detroit scored another run in the third when Bill Freehan walked, took second on a wild pitch, advanced to third on an infield out and scored when John let Mickey Stanley's twisting dribbler get through him for an error.

Pitchers Become Hitters In Topsy Turvy National

By The Associated Press
The pitchers turned hitters and the hitters turned pitchers as the National League turned topsy turvy, and General Manager Joe Brown of Pittsburgh capped it all by giving his team a vote of confidence instead of his manager.

Chris Short, trying to show he can still win after missing 40 days with a torn knee ligament, started the shenanigans Friday night by proving he can hit, too. He backed his seven-hitter with a three-run double that completed Philadelphia's 10-3 victory over San Francisco in the first game of a doubleheader.

Juan Marichal carried on as usual in the nightcap, riding a 19-hit Giant attack that buried the Phillies 12-3. But Philadelphia still managed the unusual.

The last of six Phillies pitchers turned out to be Cookie Rojas. Philadelphia's valuable jack of all trades who now has played every position in the major leagues.

Claude Osteen followed this happening by lining a lead off home run in the ninth inning that won his own game as Los Angeles beat Houston 5-4.

Then it was Steve Blass' turn for Pittsburgh, backing up

Brown's pre-game vote of confidence. His two-run single in the eighth inning gave him a five-hit 3-1 triumph over Atlanta.

But don't forget the Chicago Cubs, who continued their amazing reversal with a 7-5 victory over Cincinnati, their 11th victory in 12 games.

The New York Mets did not surprise anyone, however, losing to league-leading St. Louis 4-1.

In the American League, Detroit beat the Chicago White Sox 4-1, Boston topped Kansas City 5-3, California stopped the New York Yankees 6-2, Cleveland whipped Baltimore 6-5 in 14 innings in the opener of a two-night doubleheader with the second game halted by a curfew, and Washington was rained out at Minnesota.

Short, a 20-game winner last season, had an easy time despite one bad pitch that rookie Dick Dietz hit for a three-run homer in the third inning. Short retired the next 12 hitters and 19 of the last 21 he faced.

"I wanted to prove I could come back after such a long layoff and still pitch my game. I pitched a pretty good game and the knee didn't bother me one bit," Short said after his first start since May 21 and the injury May 23.

Phillie Manager Gene Mauch gave Rojas a chance after the Giants broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the sixth inning and added four more in the seventh and two in the eighth as Jim Hart and Ollie Brown each drove in four runs. Rojas responded by pitching a scoreless inning.

Marichal, who has lost six games, breezed to his 11th victory, tying him with Osteen for the league lead.

Osteen almost didn't make it as the Astros clobbered him for four runs in the first three innings. But his sacrifice fly and Wes Parker's three-run inside-the-park homer in the second inning gave him his chance in the ninth.

Blass' hit broke a 1-1 deadlock and Pittsburgh's five-game losing streak in a game delayed twice by rain for a total of one hour and 43 minutes.

His complete game, only the ninth in 71 games for Pirate pitchers, moved disappointing Pittsburgh into a tie for fifth place. It followed Brown's talk to his players in the locker room after sending out manager Harry Walker and the coaches.

Brown refused to call his 15-minute session a vote of confidence for Walker or a tongue-lashing for the players who were early season favorites to win the pennant.

It was a "vote of confidence to the players," he said, adding that he doesn't believe in votes of confidence for a manager. But Brown told the players Walker would be their manager for a "long time."

"If this club doesn't win the National League pennant," Brown said, "it's not because they're mismanaged. It's because they didn't want to pay the price to win."

Meanwhile, the second-place Cubs, who haven't finished in the first division since 1946, stayed 1½ games behind St. Louis. They built a 6-0 lead on homers by Ron Santo and Billy Williams and Bill Hands pitched hitless ball for 6-13 innings before fading and Cal Koonce and Chuck Hartenstein rescued him.

Julian Javier drove in three runs with a single and a sacrifice fly behind Larry Jaster as the Cardinals broke a three-game losing streak. Jerry Grote homered for the Mets.

Brunet Beats Yanks For Fifth Victory

By The Associated Press
The thing about George Brunet and Gary Bell is that the baseball season started about two months too soon for each of them.

Roth Brunet and Bell sadly waved goodbye to June with victories Friday night and proved that two months do not a season make.

Brunet, who had a nine-game losing streak until June, batted out all over, pitched California to a 6-2 victory over the New York Yankees and Bell, still saving his new surroundings, won his fifth game for Boston, beating Kansas City 5-3.

Elsewhere Friday night, Detroit dropped Chicago 4-1 and Cleveland nipped Baltimore 6-5 in the 11-inning first game of a scheduled two-night doubleheader. The second game was suspended after five innings with the Orioles leading 1-0. Tornado-like wind and rain wiped out Washington's game at Minnesota.

Brunet beat Detroit with a three-hitter in the season's opener and didn't win another game until June. He dropped nine straight during the streak.

But once he ended the string, he won three more games during June and enters July with a respectable 5-11 record. That's respectable for a guy who was suspended of the game after five innings.

The second game will be completed before today's regularly scheduled game.

The Indians tied the opener in the ninth inning when reliever Eddie Watt walked Don Demet, or with the bases loaded, Mas Altier's third single of the game started the winning rally in the 14th. After Chuck Hinton walked, Davalillo delivered.

Cornell Seems Ready For Win

old rivals from the United event at Henley Royal Regatta.

The old-time rivals, Kent
School, Conn., and Tabor Acad-

the semifinal of the Princess schoolboy eights.

But Cornell, favored from the start of this four-day international meet to retain for America the Thames Challenge, won by the Harvard University light-weights last year, remained the strongest U.S. threat.

Cornell raced England's Molesey Boat Club, a strong squad, who thus far have had a tough draw.

Cornell, who average 172
pounds, Friday beat a lighter
British crew by two lengths in 6 minutes, 58 seconds, only one second slower than the winning 1966 Harvard crew.

Molesey was one second slower than Cornell in its race.
Both crews in the other semifinal of the Thames Challenge clocked slower times Friday.

Romney Signs Military Bill

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney Friday signed into law several House and Senate bills, including measures concerning the military, builders, nurses and voting machines.

One bill, given immediate effect, provides for the reorganization of the Michigan military establishment. The statute designates the adjutant general as commander of the State Militia, replacing the old organization which divided administration authority among several officials.

It discontinues the Quarter master General Department, transfers responsibilities of the department to the adjutant general and provides for assistants to cover for the Air and Army National Guards.

The measure also increases benefits of National Guard or State Defense Force retirees to $50 per month at age 60, upon completion of at least 20 years in state service.

Under another measure signed by the governor, the licensing bond requirement is eliminated from the residential builders and alterations contractors license law.

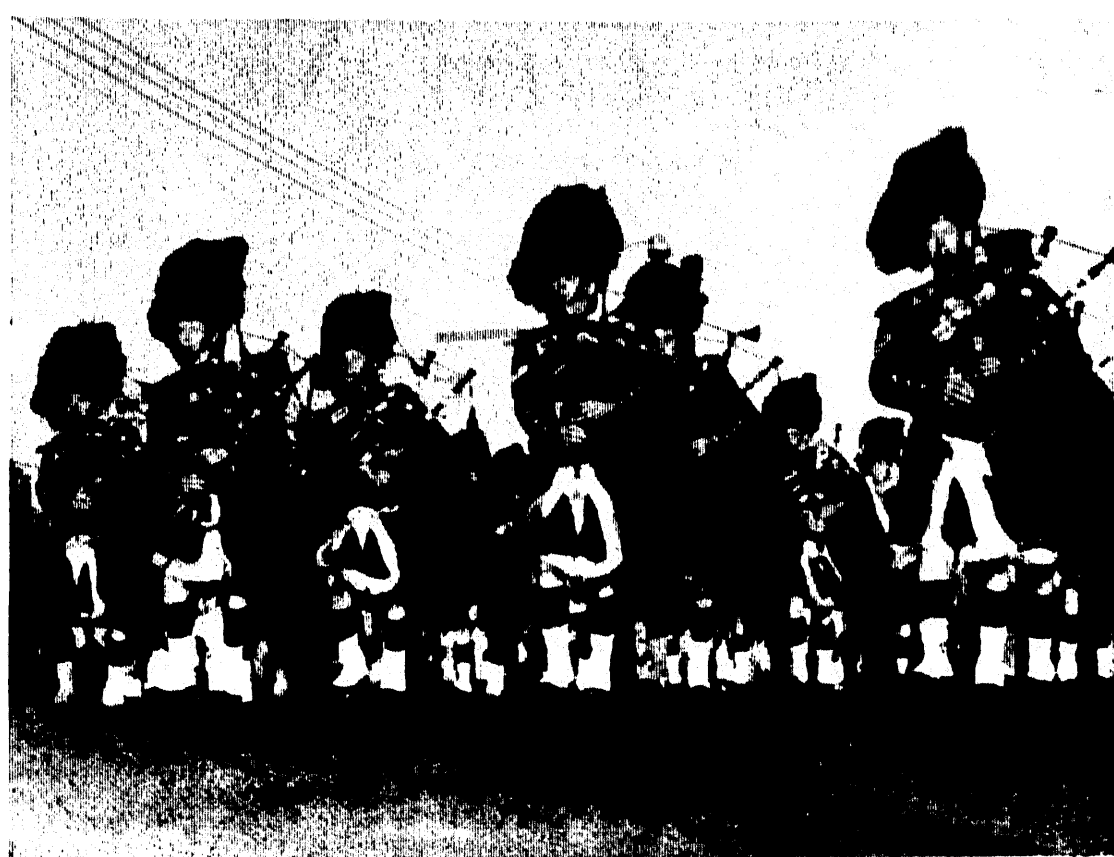

"It should protect the public by eliminating the unscrupulous operator from every county and township through the effect of statewide licensing," the governor said.

The bill concerning nurses updates a definition of the practice of nursing to meet changed methods and conditions and to provide flexibility in the proper use of license practitioners.

The new act empowers the Michigan Board of Nursing to set standards and issue licenses in the categories of: registered nurse, licensed practical nurse, licensed psychiatric attendant nurse and trained attendant.

Another bill signed Friday outlines for the first time, under law, the procedures to be followed if a community uses a new electronic voting system. Previously, the procedures were supervised and regulated through rules of the secretary of state, but were not covered by law.

Family Exemptions For State Tax Top Federal

LANSING (AP)—Your wife and kids are worth just twice as much to you under the state income tax plan the House passed Thursday as they are in the eyes of the federal income tax people.

But otherwise, the state tax program now in the Legislature is closely and carefully patterned after the U.S. government's Internal Revenue Code.

To find out how much of your total annual income would be subject to the 2.6 per cent tax in the House fiscal package, you'd use almost the same exemptions and deductions as when calculating "adjusted gross income" for your federal income tax bill.

But you could subtract $1,200 each for yourself and your dependents before arriving at taxable income for state purposes. The per dependent exemption in the federal tax is $600.

For example, a family of five would escape federal taxes on the first $3,000 ($600 times five) of its income, but the first $6,000 (five times $1,200) would be out of reach of the proposed state income tax.

The family of five if it earned $10,000 a year, would have a state tax bill of $104.

The same family, with an income of $15,000, would owe $234. At $20,000, the bill would climb to $364.

But the family wouldn't necessarily pay that much to the state. The amount paid would be lower if the family also paid property or city income taxes.

If it paid $200 a year in ad valorem property taxes, for instance, the House plan would allow subtraction of $32.50 from the state income tax owed. If the property tax is $300, the credit is $37.50. At $500, it's $47.50.

If you rent your home, the same scale applies to one-fifth of your annual rent as defined in the bill.

If you pay $100 rent a month, that's $1,200 a year, and the exemption would amount to one-fifth of that, or $240. You could subtract $240 from your state income tax bill—just as if you owned a home and paid $240 a year in property taxes.

The "sliding scale" exemption also applies if the family pays a city income tax, either at the resident rate of 1 per cent or the nonresident 0.5 per cent rate.

If you pay under $100 a year, that's $1,200 a year, and the exemption would amount to one-fifth of that, or $240. You could subtract $240 from your state income tax bill—just as if you owned a home and paid $240 a year in property taxes.

Newcomer Held In Fire Bombings At Saginaw

SAGINAW (AP)—A newcomer to Saginaw has been charged with "preparation to burn" one of the four Saginaw businesses that were hit by firebombs Wednesday night.

Howard D. Anderson, 22, stood mute at his arraignment in Municipal Court Friday.

Police Chief Joseph Bugenske said witnesses identified Anderson as the person who placed a "Molotov Cocktail" next to the front door of Wenzel's Wrecking Service shortly before midnight Wednesday.

An employee snuffed out the wick on the homemade bomb made of a mixture of kerosene and oil poured into a bottle.

Two other businesses, Leath Furniture Store and Scott G. Ballard Farm Supply Store were heavily damaged by firebombs the same night.

A fourth business, Werzberg & Byron Heating Store, also was the target of a bomb that failed to ignite.

Municipal Judge W. Glover Gage set examination for Anderson for next Wednesday. Anderson was jailed in lieu of $10,000 bonds.

Bugenske said Anderson showed an Oregon driver's license to police who arrested him. He said Anderson told officers he had been in Saginaw four or five weeks.

Man, 74, Tries Again To Cross Atlantic Ocean

MONTAUK, N.Y. (AP)—Capt. William Willis is alone at sea again today, bound across 3,000 miles of water in a boat only slightly longer than a surfboard and about twice as wide.

The bewhiskered 74-year-old mariner set sail on the Atlantic Ocean in midafternoon Friday as rain fell in a steady drizzle. His 11½-foot boat, "Little One," carried supplies for 120 days.

His destination was Plymouth, England, just as it was a year ago when he made his first try at the eastward crossing in the same boat. That voyage was interrupted in mid-ocean when he suffered a strangulated hernia.

Forester Wins Highest Praise

Paul St. Amant closed a distinguished career when he retired today as assistant regional forester in charge of the Division of Timber Management in the Milwaukee regional office of the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

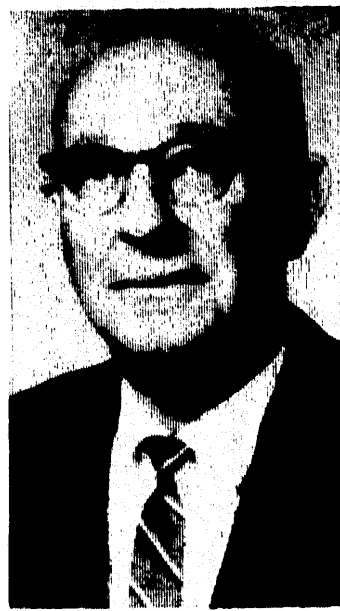

Regional Forester George S. James announcing St. Amant's retirement said:

"He forged a career and a reputation that is the envy of many. He enhanced cooperative relationships among state foresters and Forest Service during, and after, his assignment with state and private forestry; and during his tenure in timber management for this 20-state Eastern Region his dedicated experience was used most constructively."

St. Amant left Escanaba in 1956 after serving with the Forest Service here. He started his professional career as inspector of Civilian Conservation Corps camps on the Superior National Forest in 1933, then transferred to the Chippewa National Forest, also in Minnesota. St. Amant served there until 1951 in various assignments, rising to timber management assistant. Then he moved to Escanaba and the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore, as assistant forest supervisor, remained there until 1956 then transferred to the Milwaukee regional office.

Two years later he was promoted and became supervisor of the Shawnee National Forest in southern Illinois. He returned to Milwaukee in 1961 as chief of state and private cooperative forestry. In 1964 he became chief of timber management, from which position he retired.

St. Amant and his wife Madeline plan to stay in Milwaukee for at least one year. During this time they will visit with friends and relatives such as his son Richard with his wife and two children who reside in Syracuse.

Sports Fishing Prospects Good Over Holiday

Upper Peninsula visitors in the big Fourth of July holiday will find sports fishing better than usual in the area and with even more exciting things ahead, especially in Great Lakes waters.

This is the first year that visitors have been able to try for a coho salmon, introduced by Michigan from the West Coast into Lake Michigan and Lake Superior waters.

The cohos are most numerous in the southern waters of Lake Superior and in southern Lake Michigan. They aren't reported yet in the Upper Peninsula streams flowing into Lake Michigan nor adjacent lake waters and Clifford Long, fish supervisor in the Escanaba District of the Conservation Department, doubts that it will be seeing them until there are plantings of the species in these waters.

Lake Superior waters about the mouths of rivers from Munising to Marquette and west are favorite areas of fishermen seeking cohos, steelheads (lake running rainbows) and brown trout. Trolling is a favorite fishing method.

Trout Comeback

"We're trying to increase the cohoers in these waters and planted 25,000 in Marquette harbor, this year," said Long. "They averaged 4 inches and are all marked."

The lake trout in Superior, he said, are making a "real good comeback."

Inland fishing in the Upper Peninsula, he said, has done well because "we've had lots of water. This is true of the Great Lakes, too; we seem to get gains in fish populations in periods of rising waters."

"Bass fishing has been good on the Ford, Cedar and Bark rivers and fishermen are doing well in the Bark with rainbows. We've been doing a fish collection in the Bark throughout the stream and the heavy plantings that we made there beginning in 1965 are beginning to pay off.

Better Results

"We hope for the same kind of results on the Days River, but we haven't checked that yet. We are working on the Days, Bark and Schaawe and hope to establish runs of rainbows in them.

"We are improving Hunters Brook below the Boney Falls Basin where ponds and warm water had developed. We're restoring it as a trout stream and want to plant browns and rainbows in the hope that they'll feed into the Escanaba River.

"We have released approximately 15,000 northern pike 3 to 4 inches long from two marshes and the marshes were drained on June 26. They are at Rapid River and at Kipling and Operation Bootstrap and the people of the area helped with this rearing and stocking project. We won't operate the pike marshes again now until next year. The northern, by the way, is becoming increasingly popular with fishermen.

Eggs Are Hatched

"The Conservation Department isn't stocking any more heavily because the coho program has cut our production capacity, but our eventual goal is much greater plantings of fish. Our increased plantings will be based on the needs of the waters after field surveys and we can expect much better returns from such plantings, as they are more and more scientific.

"The coho catches in Superior have been somewhat surprising because we only planted 192,000 in the lake and the planting in southern Lake Michigan was about 800,000. Expansion of this program depends upon our fall collection of eggs. "The eggs collected from last fall's run of jacks have hatched and they're healthy so we'll have a viable means of reproduction. (It had been feared that the ocean fish might not reproduce in the lakes.) The huge number of eggs that we should be taking in our stream traps next November means a cold job."

She was one of three girls who competed in the Miss Michigan contest who were invited to the Cherry Festival. Candidates are staying in the Northwestern Michigan College dormitory.

Norman Resigns Bark River Post

Due to a conflict of interest created when governmental employees hold elected school positions, the U.S. Postal Department has asked Philip Norman, trustee on the Bark River-Harris School Board, to resign his position effective July 1. Any qualified residents of the school district who are interested in being appointed to fulfill this opening until the 1968 general election are asked to contact Alex Jorasz, board secretary, before the July 10 reorganizational meeting.

Summer Heat Comes, Goes

Summer heat finally came to Escanaba Friday, but the U.S. Weather Bureau said today that it isn't likely to last.

After a high of 85 yesterday, the weatherman forecast a high of 72 for today with a drop all the way back to 50 tonight.

Partly cloudy skies and cool temperatures with a chance of showers is likely for both Sunday and Monday.

Friday, however, was nice while it lasted.

Francis Lueneberg, beach director, reported that the largest throng of the summer, an estimated 750 persons, jammed the beach enjoying the sunshine and the warmest water temperatures of the summer, a refreshing 67. It was also reported the Gladstone beach also had a good-sized crowd.
